■ Respect for Employees

Respecting the individuality of each employee, the OKI Group creates a corporate culture in which its personnel are encouraged to engage in challenges facing the group with courage and determination.

■ Environmental Conservation

In order to realize and pass on a better global environment, the OKI Group promotes environmental management and makes efforts to conserve the environment through its products and its business activities.

■ Social Contribution

As a good corporate citizen, the OKI Group implements social contribution activities dedicated to the betterment of society.

■ Regional Awareness

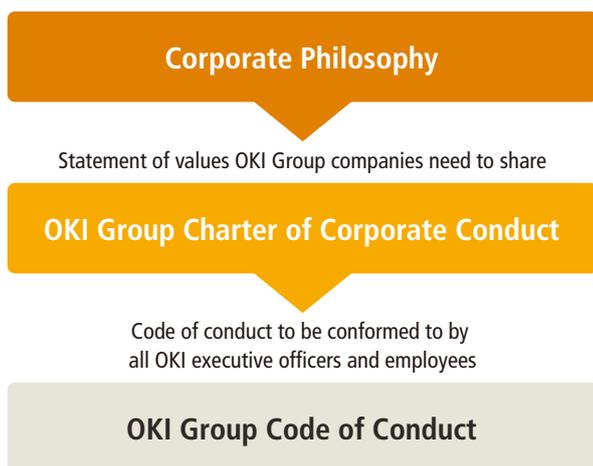

The OKI Group endeavors to build a positive relationship and grow together with local societies, respecting the cultures and customs of the countries and regions in which it operates.

The OKI Group, as described in its corporate philosophy, aims at contributing to improve the quality of life for people around the world through its core business, namely the manufacturing and distribution of products and services that can serve the development of the information age. Our commitment to the pursuit and fulfillment of this idea underlies the group's corporate social responsibility (CSR) initiatives.

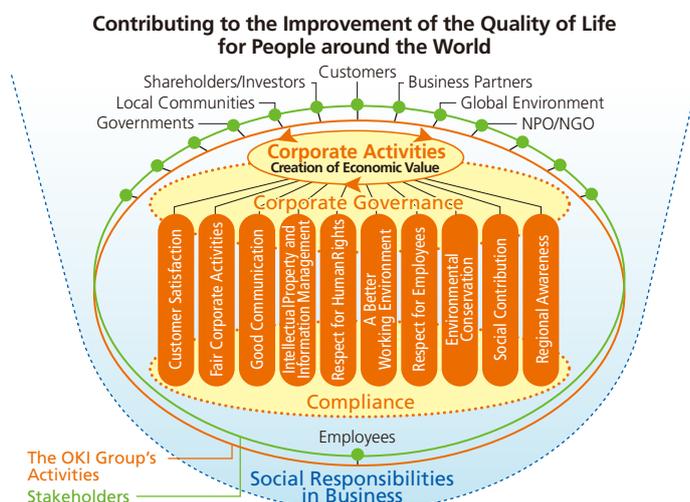

Based on this understanding, in order to cohesively promote our CSR initiatives, we enacted the OKI Group Charter of Corporate Conduct, as a statement of values to be shared by all OKI Group companies. We also established "OKI Group Code of Conduct", which is to be conformed to by all executives and employees of the group. We have adopted the charter and code across the entire group, and are working to thoroughly implement them through various means such as training programs.

We will continue to consider social responsibilities from all the relevant angles – namely, from the aspect of the United Nations Global Compact and the international standard ISO26000 regarding social responsibility along with the aspect that comes in the shape of expectations received from stakeholders, in order for us as the OKI Group to further boost the contribution to our regular business while simultaneously reconfirming the social responsibilities we should fulfill.

WE SUPPORT

In May 2010, OKI signed the United Nations Global Compact to declare its support for the Compact. It also became a member of the Global Compact Network Japan, which is a local network in Japan. The OKI Group supports the ten principles of the United Nations Global Compact in the area of human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption, and engages in activities for helping create sustainable societies.

The Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact

Human Rights	Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and
	Principle 2: make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.
Labor	Principle 3: Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
	Principle 4: the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labor;
	Principle 5: the effective abolition of child labor; and
	Principle 6: the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.
Environment	Principle 7: Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
	Principle 8: undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
	Principle 9: encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally conscious technologies.
Anti-Corruption	Principle 10: Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.
